

LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

The Virginia Center for Health Innovation's Leadership Council advises the Board of Directors through high-level discussions of issues important to the development and implementation of VCHI's initiatives. Members have the opportunity to engage on one or more work groups* and provide actionable recommendations on program design and execution. All professional and trade associations, charitable foundations, health care companies, health systems, and employers are eligible for membership.

*VCHI's Core Work Groups include: Communications; Finance, Funding and Grant Review; Primary Care Transformation; Leveraging Health Informatics and Data Analysis; State Innovation Models (SIM); and Value Collaborative
